AFTER ALEXANDRIA AGAIN.

tood for the return of that portion of he original District of Columbia reroceded to Virginia that the plans for eautifying the national capital may be carried out in their fallest glory, in his address at the annual banquet of the Bokers' Association of the District of lou ubia at the New Willard Saturday

The president discussed the development of the brau'y of the city of Washngton and dwelt at some length on the er-mile Virginia tract which Congress ong ago retroceeded to the state, and which is now desired by some people of he District for a completion of a system of parks.

"Idon't like to give up hope," said the president, "that our friends from Virinia will recognize the necessity of givog back to the District that ten-mile quare. I hope Congress will give me n oppor unity to test the constitutionlity of the retrocessson of that land, and I will direct the attorney general what to do " He added "We need not include Alexandria if Alexandria wishes > ttiy out"

Equally as forceful in his contention, Seuntor Billey, of Texas, argued that he most shou'd be made of what the District now has without reaching out or more territory. "Perhaps if you make Washington what it should be," he said, "Virginia may be moved to return voluntarily what you now seem to yearn for so Senator Balley is a friend of Alexandria and of Virginia, and in his recent speech in this city promised that if it was in his power to prevent, Alexandria were held spell-bound as with a few shou'd never again become a part of the strokes of the crayon, picture after pic-District of Columbia.

HEARST REPUDIATED.

At a meeting yesterday of Lodge No. 580, International Association of Machimist, of this city, resolutions were adopted setting forth "that this lodge has honored William Randolph Hearst by using his name as the name of the lodge, and that he has proven himself to be untrue to the principles of organized labor; also that the membership of organized labor throughout America form a large percentage of the aubscribers to William Raudolph H arst; therefore Resolved, by members of Lodge No.

580, of the Ist rustional Association of machinists, That we regard the attitude the society. The organization has branchof William Randolph H aret as cowardly, and that we look upon his former pretensions of friendship for organiz d labor as were pretex's to enlarge the circulation of his newspapers among members of organized labor, and be it zed labor, and labor, and his former pretensions of friendship as the expressions of a masked hypocrite, and be it further.

Resolved, That any mention of William Randolph Hearst be stricken from the name of our naior, and that it be heresiter known as "Potomac Lodge No. 580, International Association of Machinisis "

The bright warm weather of the past week or so was followed on Saturday night by raio, thunder and lightning and a decided drop in the temperature. At t mes carly Eunday morning there were perfect downpours of rain with vivid flishes of lightning and heavy claps of thunder. Yestuday was cloudy and rainy all day, with a northeasterly wind which at night weered to the scutheast when for a time it blew great guns, accompanied by very heavy rainfalls which continued throughout the night. The rain was a godsend, as the earth was becoming parched and vegetation suffering. The rain pur cut the fires which had prevailed in many places in this section of the state. This morning the skies cleared and the day has been delightfal.

YESTERDAY, Yesterdsy was cloudy and rainy and many persons were housed, but all were willing to forego the pleasure of being out-o'-loors for the sake of the much needed rain. In St. Mary's Church Rev. Fathers Waters and Doyle concluded their interesting mission and at St. Paul's Church in the morning Rev. Dr. Miceu, of the Seminary, preached at the maraing services. The other pulpits were filled by the resident clergy. The services were by no means largely attended, however, on account of the raic. Rav. E. J. Richardson, of Falls Church, in the afternoon delivered an address before a mass meeting of children at the First Baptist Church. His subject was "Spares of Ohildhood."

The ceremonies instituting the lodge were performed by Mr. Mayer in a very impressive manner. The following named were installed as officers for the ensuing period: Wm. G. Lt Hew, 32ud degree, venerable master; Charles T. Lindsay, 18th degree, senior warden; Robert S. Barrett, 32ad degree junier warden; Leopold Ruben, 32nd degree, orster; Vernon A. Slanghter, 32 ad degree secretary; James M. Daucan, 32 treasurer.

This lodge starts cut under favorable conditions, having in its membership many prominent Masons of Alexandria and the surreunding country. The class, which will be initiated tonight, is one of the largest in the history of the r to at the firmation of a new lodge. The impressive degrees of the lodge will be corferred by a degree team composed of the members of the Lodge of Perfection in Richmond and Washington, D. C., with Jas. D. Rowen, 32 id degree, past venerable master of Mi.hias Lodge of Perfection, No. 1, acting as master.

A fall account of the entire proceedings, together with the membership, will be jublished tomorrow.

MEETING OF SUNDAY SCHOOL SOHOLARS.

In spits of the inclement weather yesterday atternoon, an au lience of about 500 (mostly children) greeted Mr. E. J. Richardson at the First Baptist Church. After the devotional exercises, conducted longingly. You will never get it until by Rav. Mr. Watson, and a short addrees by Rev. Mr. Sevier, the meeting was turned over to Mr. Richardson who fully demonstrated bis ability to "chalk talk." For two hours, the children ture appeared before them, sanding through the "eye-gate" lessons and that will abide and bring forth fruit. At the close of the meeting, each child was presented with an American flig, a total abstinence button, a pic ure of the speaker and literature, as souvenirs of the occasion. Rev. J. M. Holmes, pre-

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY [Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.] The grand jury sworn and charged by Captain Crandall Mackey, commonwealth's attorney, stated that for the first time in his experience he had nothing to lay before the grand jury; that no crime had taken place in the county in the last two months. Judge Thornton expressed his gratification and stated that the county and officials ought to feel proud of the fact that though the county is opposite a great city of 300,000 in-habitants and half of the area of the District of Columbia that not a single case of crime was to be presented to the grand jury.

The docket was called and cases set. Fred Schwab vs. Washington Luna Park Co.; demurrer to evidence; demurrer sustained and verdict rendered at last term in favor of plantiff for $4,500 set saide and judgment rendered in favor of defendant company. Mr. Schwab some time ago while in the employ of the Luna Park Company lost a foot while operating an aerial swing. He sued for $15,000 and a jury gave him

$4,500. The time of the court was occupied this evening in hearing arguments for an injunction in the Bramball divorce
